

Library Impact Case Study

Library concerned: HSE Library Services, Dr. Steevens Hospital
Name of case study: Exploratory Meeting regarding Copyright and Licensing Issues
Date of interview: 3 rd October 2017
Interviewee	Name: Denise Doolan Job Title: NMPD Officer Trust/Employing body: HSE Corporate: NMPD Dublin South Kildare and Wicklow Name: Susanna Byrne Job Title: NMPD Director Trust/Employing body: HSE Corporate: NMPD Dublin South Kildare and Wicklow Name: Judy Ryan Job Title: Interim NMPD Director Trust/Employing body: HSE DML: NMPD Tullamore
Summary of problem or reason for enquiry	The recent scoping exercise to explore the situation in relation to copyright for the Stop and Watch Early Warning Tool which is part of the INTERACT™ 4.0 system – to avoid plagiarism and ensure we have appropriate permission to base the NMPD DML Stop and Watch Response System on the INTERACT™ 4.0 tool in order to establish a process within the Irish healthcare context which supports the detection of deterioration of residents in long term care facilities
Brief description of the information found / service provided	NMPD DML have piloted the Stop and Watch Response System which is based on the Stop and Watch Early Warning Tool Previous examples of copyright issues explored Review of communication received from INTERACT Information relating to Intellectual Property rights provided Information in relation to the INTERACT™ 4.0 Licence Agreement provided
Summary of outcome and impact	Clarification to be sought before proceeding with further development and/or implementation of the Stop and Watch Response System
Immediate Impact (including quotes)	Clarity regarding questions/areas to be explored locally, with INTERACT and/or HSE Legal Department Next steps identified Very beneficial to have the expertise of the library services to assist with this enquiry
Probable future Impact (including quotes)	The implementation of a process to support the detection of deterioration of residents in long term care facilities within the Irish healthcare context without any risk of infringement on copyright or licence agreements