

Mary Dunne

Mary is a Chartered Information Specialist, working in the HRB National Drugs Library. This is a specialist online information resource for those researching and working in the area of addiction, and is based within the Health Research Board.

Mary is Vice Chair and Research Officer of the Health Sciences Libraries Group of the Library Association of Ireland. In this role she organises research and evaluation studies and policy development for the group, and is a regular contributor to our newsletter. She is also an active member of the LAI CPD (continuing professional development) committee.

Mary's qualifications include a Masters in Psychology and a Masters in Information and Library Studies (Distinction). She was elected to the Register of Chartered Members of CILIP in 2015 and Register of Associate Members of the LAI in 2016. She has presented at national and international conferences, and authored numerous articles for library and drug-related publications. <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0147-8594>

Skillset: specialist-collection management and development; research; writing for publication; marketing and promotion.

Subjects of interest: continuing professional development, librarians and social capital, our professional value and impact.

Unavailable at present