

Miriam Williams

Miriam Williams has been working as a Librarian based in Tallaght University Hospital, since February 2022. Previously, she worked in HSE libraries based in Drogheda from September 2020 to February 2022.

She has 20 years experience in the public library service, working with both Offaly and South Dublin Library Services. Prior to this she worked in Financial Services. Her qualifications include a B.Comm, Higher Diploma Computer Science and Higher Diploma Library and Information Studies. In February 2025 she graduated with a Postgraduate Certificate in Statistics and Data Science from TCD.

Currently mentoring a HSLG mentee – Not Available